Membership Types. What is the 1-Day Shopping Pass for BJs ? What ...

I've been a BJs member for over ten years. As a member, I'm a little disappointed they aren't giving us better discounts on a renewal membership.

You can renew your BJ's Wholesale Club annual membership today and get a $30 discount!

When it comes to saving money, wholesale clubs are the place to be. You can find fantastic deals on everything from groceries to clothes to appliances.

*UPDATED 7/18/24.

*Update: This offer comes and goes; I never know how long it will last. BJ's ends it and then resets it. If you are very upset about this, contact BJ's and let them know you want a renewal deal like they offer new members.

If you still have a current BJs membership, it does say you can't renew. This seems odd, but you can renew the day after your membership expires. Be sure to bookmark, Pin, or whatever you need to with this page.

*Don't Have a BJs Membership? Grab a $25 BJs membership through our online link here. (No need to head into the club to get the deal)

Did you know that name brands offer coupons? The only club which accepts manufacturer's discounts is BJs. They allow me to use my store coupon plus any manufacturers' offers for even more savings!

HEADS UP- when you sign up for a membership through this discount or any site online or even in-club, they now have automatic renewal. You will automatically be renewed for another year when your membership expires at the total price. If you don't want that, you will have to CANCEL it on your own before your membership expires.

When they auto-renew your BJs membership, you will pay the total $55 price.

Welcome! I have been deal hunting for years. I'm passionate about helping others save money and live debt free. I love shopping Costco too! I'm a huge animal lover, and a little obsessed with mini pigs. Wholesale shopping is my favorite.
