Prices for goods and services in Dublin are partly crowdsourced by our visitors, just like yourself. Please consider telling us about your city.

Crowdsourced data is a vital part of the Internet, help us become better!

Livingcost is a crowdsourced database with a cost of living calculator for prices comparison in 9294 cities in 197 countries all over the world. The cost of living calculated as a consumer basket for a moderate lifestyle in developed countries and thus might seem too high for some least developed countries where maintaining such a standard of living is expensive.

Living in the city centre, as opposed to the suburbs, can significantly impact your budget. For a more personalised estimate, please check the More Options More Options to select your preferred location and accommodation type.

It is generally advised to keep accommodation costs at around 30% of your monthly gross income (before tax). However, that's likely not realistic in Dublin, given how much rent prices have increased in recent years.
