Who can benefit from the free night and weekend electricity plans? Any individual or family who may be watching their wallet when it comes to electric bills, but still wants to be able to enjoy their nights worry-free will find that these plans are pretty perfect.

The ability to relax and enjoy quality time with your loved ones or just spending downtime, in general, is made that much easier without worrying over electric consumption.

Living in a deregulated area of Texas means you have the power to choose the electric provider that best suits your needs. Ampra Energy's no deposit, prepaid electricity plans give customers the flexibility to switch to another provider in a snap.

Ampra Energy's 100% Green Energy electricity packages might be right for you if you're looking for the following factors:

If you're interested in trying out Ampra's enticing free nights electricity in Texas but aren't sure about the details, read on:

Ampra Energy provides many ways to fund your account, including online with a Credit or Debit card payment, or in cash at one of our convenient payment locations.

You will receive alerts or notifications whenever your account balance dips lower than approximately 3 days' worth of electricity usage, giving you the chance to add more funds to your account to keep you covered. This way you can still monitor your usage up-front without risking loss of power.

Do you have text messaging and/or email access? That's all you need to get signed up for Ampra Energy's services. You can manage your account completely from the comfort of your mobile device. Ampra will keep you up-to-speed on your account status by sending daily usage updates, as well as your most current account balance information.

Get hooked up fast and start saving today--it's so easy. Sign up online or call Ampra Energy for service you can rely on--you won't regret it.
